COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Another annual town meeting is now a matter of history. Appropriations by the voters amount to $177,085 with $20,000 taken from surplus, leaving $157,085 to be appropriated by taxation. This is only $402 less than a year ago. Any chance of even a small reduction in the tax rate was apparently wiped out when it was voted to increase the school appropriation by $1250 more than was recommended by both the School Committee and the Budget Committee.

The total increase in the school appropriation over 1957 is $5,500. The only thing that prevented a substantial increase in the tax rate with a resulting increase in tax bills was the fact that we had a good unexpended balance in several accounts resulting in a larger surplus. Last year a total of $14,000 was appropriated from surplus, this year it amounts to $20,000. You will note that practically all the surplus covers the increased costs of school maintenance and repairs.

In 1957 the schools took 46.6 cents of each tax dollar. This year it will be 47.7 cents.

Snow removal expenditures from Jan. 1st through to Feb. 27th amount to $10,363.70. This amount is larger than usual due to the excessive amount of snow as we all realize.

Sincerely
Harold L. Bean

Deep Snows Creating Possibility of Flood

The past two weeks have been without cold weather. On Tuesday of last week there was a snow fall of about 6 inches and 3 inches more came Friday and Friday night. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday it was cloudy most of the time, also stony, rainy and sometimes foggy.

With about three feet of snow reported on the level, and more in many places, the weather for a while now is of great importance. A warm rain or too hot weather could create a flood control hazard quickly.

Slight Drop in Bethel Appropriations -- School Funds $5,500 Over 1957 -- War Memorial and Airport Approved

Although Bethel's total appropriations at the annual town meeting Monday night are $400 under the 1957 figure, it is considered unlikely that the 1957 tax rate can be expected this year. Loss of property by fire and lower mill inventories may not be offset by new construction or other taxable property found by the assessors next month.

Sparked by an appeal for relief of "underpaid" teachers by Dana C. Douglass, Jr., the citizens enthusiastically favored an appropriation of $38,000 for school maintenance. This amount was an increase of $1250 over the $36,750 asked by the school committee and accepted for recommendation by the budget committee.

Due to sewer troubles since the budget committee's meeting, the voters were willing to spend an extra $200 on that account, but refused to go higher for winter roads, although the past few weeks have made an overdraft of the $12,000 appropriation most likely.

It was voted to borrow $3,720 in anticipation of 1959 State Aid funds, to be used with an appropriation this year of $1850 in construction of a half mile of road at Middle Interval. Explanation was that interest on this amount would be less than cost of maintenance another year.

A short discussion resulted in a pass over motion on the Rumford Hospital donation article, which was not opposed successfully. The recommended sum of $1000 was raised for a war memorial on the Common without any discussion of anticipated plans.

The town voted to accept the landing strip and adjoining land belonging to the Bethel Airport Corporation next to the highway, as outlined in Article 46, together with an option on land for another runway 450 feet wide. An appropriation of $250 was made for maintenance.

Upon motion of Dr. John Trinward the article relating to fluoridation of the water supply by the Bethel Water Company was passed over. (See Page Two).

The selectmen were instructed to appoint a committee to work with the school committee to investigate the town's school needs, relative to forming an administrative unit under the provisions of the Sinclear Education Act.

Chairman Henry Hastings of the Planning Board reported on the progress up to this time. He said that several meetings had been held and that a study had been made of the zoning regulations adopted by towns of similar size. It was noted that planning in some towns has included location of future streets and similar needs which is not anticipated by the local committee. On motion of Gay Butler it was voted to continue the present group with the understanding that a formal report be made within 60 days.

It was voted that all town ways and streets laid out and accepted by the town shall be no less than three rods wide.

On Wednesday, March 12, at 2 p. m. there will be an afternoon tea and discussion at the home of Mrs. Edward Haines at Gullington. This discussion is to be on family life problems, how to get more food value for money spent, and other problems pertaining to life in our community in order that the 1958 Extension program may be of more help to more people. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

ACROSS THE DESK

From The Canton Independent, Canton, Pa.: Interesting is the announcement that John D. Hertz, who rose from a penniless immigrant Hungarian boy to an American millionaire, is allocating most of his fortune, which may run to "many millions of dollars" to a scholarship fund for training young men and women in mechanical and electrical engineering.

Mr. Hertz, who is now 78 years old and a partner in Lehman Brothers, investment bankers, became disturbed by newspaper reports that the Russians "are turning out 100 per cent more engineers than we are." To offset Soviet advances in training engineers, he has made immediately available enough money to subsidize more than 100 students a year. The trustees of the fund, which will be called "The Hertz K. and John D. Hertz Engineering Scholarship Fund," will have full discretion in the administration of the money.

However, Mr. Hertz has made the following stipulations:

1. There must be no discrimination in giving aid with regard to race, religion or sex.
2. All those receiving aid must take a course in American history.

2. They must pledge themselves to serve the United States on request of the Government in time of national emergency.

In explaining the aims of the fund, Mr. Hertz said: "I simply want to contribute in the interest of defense the fortune the United States has allowed me to accumulate." And, later, he said he was interested in "the poor boy or girl who really wants an education but can't get it."

From the Caledonian Mountain Star, Bangor, Me.: The great American cities are booming in population. But millions of people still prefer the smaller towns, the grass-roots feel and atmosphere, the way of life that goes with the countryside.

Recently an employment agency ran a three-line ad in the New York Times offering jobs on country weekly newspapers. From that single, tiny notice more than 80 replies were received. This caused the American Press to say that "... there may be many newspapermen who have gone to the cities to seek their fortunes and, after a few frustrating months or years, long to return to the country ..."

Your Washington Report

Congressman
ROBERT HALE

Michelle Hale

I am investigating the possibility of establishing an intercept station here in York County to provide protection for the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard at Kittery and Pease Air Force Base, N. H.

Both facilities are prime military targets. The Kittery yard is one of only five shipyards in the country now able to construct atomic submarines, and Pease is an important Strategic Air Command base.

Yet neither the Army nor the Air Force have Nike or Bomarc intercept missiles in the immediate vicinity to repel enemy bombers or guided missiles. I have urged the Joint Chiefs of Staff to undertake a study to determine whether such protection is necessary.

York County would be an ideal location for a missile base of this nature. Many acres of level, sandy land are available in the Kennebunk River valley of Sanford.

Furthermore, the construction and operation of such a base would do much to stimulate the pertinent employment which has plagued the Sanford-Saco-Sanford area since 1945.

Additional members of the House of Representatives from the State of Maine have promised that the Kittery Naval Yard should be the site for such a strategic installation. In the next program sponsored by Congress, I also encourage some consideration of the yard (including one crane and larger crane).

The Armed and Military was an analysis and of the three or four Maine newspapers because of an article of mine. All four were full and it has the potential to be a study of the Maine War period.

I have appeared to President Eisenhower to step up the program for setting aside Government lands for use as a base for the development of atomic energy.

I was surprised to learn that there has been a steady decline in the number of people in the State of Maine. About 100,000 people were in 1940, 112,000 in 1950 and 114,000 in 1955. This decline should be given more attention with development and the future of the State.

BARGAINING EQUALITY?

water companies in the state to have in use the necessary equipment for controlled chlorination, and to test their water at least daily for residual chlorine. When this comes about we all know that it will require a considerable change in our local company and involve most of the items listed in their recent statement.

The actual costs of installing fluoridation equipment and supplying the material to a system that has controlled chlorination as presented to me by the Dept. of Sanitation in Augusta are as follows:

These figures are based on their rather accurate estimate of flow here as no one including the water company can give you the exact figures without the installation of a meter.

Estimated C. P. D. 15,000.
Cost of NaF delivered $146 per lb.
Amount required daily for 15,000 gal. of water to make the recommended 1 PPM .262 lbs. less than 1 lb.

Cost per day for material .50422.
Cost per yr. for material $182.00.
Cost of fluoridation equipment including freight and taxes will not exceed $600.

Amortized for 20 yrs. $45/yr.
Added to cost of material $182.00 yr. Total cost per year, $407.00.

No. of water services, 315. Cost per service per yr., $129.11. Estimated cost per consumer $407/yr.

The testing required by the Maine Dept. of Health would require a man run of 19 minutes a day, and anyone with normal eyesight and the ability to read could perform the test. Supplying the feeder and checking the equipment would require a negligible amount of time over that necessary for proper chlorination.

Any costs in excess of these previously mentioned should be attributed to chlorination and plant modernization as they are as necessary now without fluoridation.

Latest figures released by Norway reveal that their 1957 cost of fluoridation was 11c per consumer. For Brunswick-Topsam it was 16c. Neither Water District makes any charge to consumers.

In reference to the Water Co. statement again, water operated meters are not only available but recommended, and at far less cost than electrically operated ones. They would not require a long extension of electric service and the never ending monthly cost of power from an overcharging monopolistic public utility.

Regardless of all the facts presented here, subject to approval of the P. U. C. we would still be confronted with a large increase in water rates if this article is voted in the affirmative. The part that disturbs me even more is that it always be attributed by most of the uninformed, completely to fluoridation. Although I personally doubt that the entire cost could or would be charged to the consumer, any rise in rates attributed to fluoridation would be an injustice.

I do not feel that our fluoridation program has been defeated, as I hope that in the near future we shall enjoy its great benefits. Meanwhile, this may serve to arouse the local consumers to demand modernization of our present circumstances, and in fairness to the thousands of children in the hundreds of communities throughout the country where a good opportunity for a favorable vote exists, I wish to make the motion that the article be passed over.

If I am ever quoted as making this motion I demand that my reasons be clearly stated.

Citizens interested in the salary needs of the teachers of Bethel were glad to have a part in voting a boost in school appropriations from $84,000 to $88,000 at town meeting, Monday night.

The added amount will bring teachers' pay up to the minimum that is required by the State Act. This raise was much needed. Few people know that a survey of teacher's salaries made in 44 towns of comparable size, show Bethel to be 25th from the top.

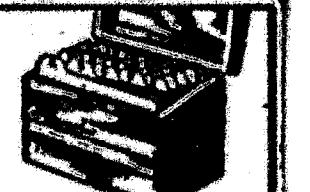

This pay boost will encourage teachers to continue their schooling which will add to the quality of teaching which parents expect in Bethel.

STRING SAVERS

We are not versed in the realm of high finance. We read statements concerning bank credit flow of currency, installment buying, mortgage money, and the bottom line. Predictions are made and graphs devised by bankers; the national debt is so big that it seems like a mountain; a man who wonders where his weekly allowance goes. Citizens grumble about the cost of living, but continue to buy what they want.

Probably one should be more deeply concerned than he is over this matter of thrift, but as the countryman watches his helpmate save string he feels that the principle of thrift still has greater meaning. A good string saver is one of string, winds them into neat balls, and keeps a 30 year supply always at hand, she feels justified in saying that new hat she thinks she needs.

A good string saver is an example to all of us. There are techniques involved that call for care and planning. String comes in various sizes and lengths, and a systematic string saver should have at least half a dozen balls. In addition to diameter size, length and strength, string today are coming in various colors and it is possible to use some on that conventional string saver will make substitutions by colors. Of course there are some pieces of string too short for any practical purpose and these should be carefully saved in a box marked "Too short to use."

With the inevitable ever-on of usage of national thrift. There are some danger signs in the economy, but after all, we don't need to worry as long as careful citizens save string. Hagley & Pousness.

DR. TRINWARD'S STATEMENT IN BETHEL TOWN MEETING

I wish to first have it plainly understood that I am not representing the Maine Dental Society, the Bethel Health and Service Council, Inc., the Bethel P. T. A. or any other organization when I make the following statement. All opinions and most of the data are my own. I hope it will serve a threefold purpose: first to present the Bethel fluoridation story as seen by those who were responsible for this article being in the warrant; secondly to prepare the way for future action on the matter; lastly but perhaps to many more important, to prevent further discussion of the matter at this time.

I am quite sure that the Bethel Water Co. was sincere in their recent statement in the Bethel Citizen. I am even more certain that few if any of their local consumers with an extra charge of at least three or four dollars per year added to an already excessive water rate. I feel very strongly that it is extremely unfair to the taxpayer to charge the cost of fluoridation to the large expense entirely to their program.

It is doubtful if many of you realize as I don't myself until last week that until recently the water companies of Maine were controlled completely by the Maine P. U. C. A short time ago the State Dept. of Sanitation, through their Div. of Sanitation, assumed all control except for the filing of rates which was left with the P. U. C. It is the opinion of their sanitary engineers that in the not too distant future there will be legislation enacted compelling all

LIFE LINES

Col. Ralph T. Miller of
The Salvation Army

ENJOY YOUR ENJOYMENTS

It was my privilege to know Prof. William Lash, Ph.D., of Yale University, one of America's most famous literary critics. Few men have done so much to make literature popular with the common people. He was a man of great wit and for life to his autobiography "Tale With Letters" there is a fascinating section in which he tells his life and career. The book is a real treasure trove of information. When he died he left behind him a list of things he didn't like to do and to give up after the third day.

I was once with Prof. Lash for several hours. I asked him if there was any special question or topic that could explain his life and work.

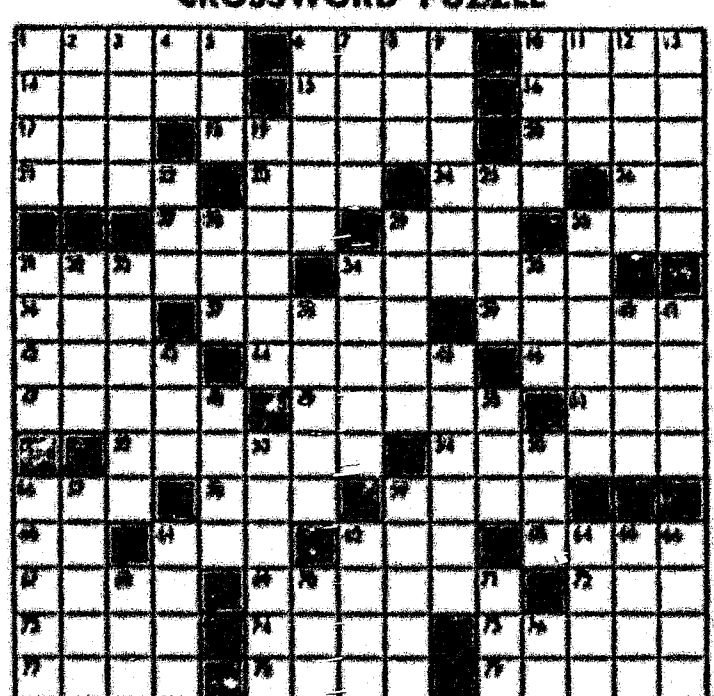

"Yes," he said, "and after a moment's thought he said that the most important thing in his life was to enjoy his life. He said that he had a great deal to do, but he always found time to enjoy his life. He said that he had a great deal to do, but he always found time to enjoy his life. He said that he had a great deal to do, but he always found time to enjoy his life."

The first thing, of that way of life is that we often when we reach the goal we find we don't want it after all. I don't want to be on the mountain and I don't want to be on the mountain.

If we could only enjoy life more we would get more joy and satisfaction out of it. I don't want to be on the mountain and I don't want to be on the mountain.

It is my hope that you will enjoy your life more. I don't want to be on the mountain and I don't want to be on the mountain.

Turkish Forester Visits Lumber Operations Here

FALL CROOKED, 31, a forester of Turkey's forestry department, spending some time in town with P. H. Chubbuck & Co. He is acting here by the International Cooperation Administration of Washington, and is observing and studying forestry management practices in this country.

He came last October 11 to Washington by way of New York by plane, 30 hours from Turkey. He has been in Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, and Ohio about four months. He came to Maine this month and has spent 12 days with the M. S. Hancock Lumber Co. at Orono and 12 days with Timberlands Inc. at Bethel.

Mr. Chubbuck gives the following information on the forestry situation in Turkey:

The total area of forest amounts to 20,000,000 acres which is 15% of the area of Turkey. Turkish forest consists of conifers (45%) and broad leaves (55%). ## HOW TO DRIVE

A tip from the AAA's driving guide for adults.

FOLLOW AT SAFE DISTANCE

A real hazard on the road is the bumper-bugger—the driver who follows 10 feet behind the car ahead while traveling 50 miles per hour. Following too close to another car results in many traffic accidents, and rear-end collisions are generally very serious. Safe following distance depends on many factors, such as speed, traffic, weather, car and light conditions. It also is affected by the driver's alertness, reaction time and physical condition.

According to HOW TO DRIVE, a book for adult drivers published by the American Automobile Association, a simple rule to observe is this: Stay slightly more than one car length behind the car you are following for each ten miles per hour of your speed.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS

The Bethel Auxiliary of the Bethel Community Hospital met Monday, March 3, at the home of Margaret Troward with 190 guests attending. Eleven members were present.

The Silver Tea to be held at the home of Mary Chadbourne March 18 was discussed. It will be held from 1 to 3. The charity fund committee reported excellent progress in its work on the Hill.

The meeting adjourned early so members could attend town meeting. All members and their husbands were invited back to the Silver Tea for refreshments following the meeting.

The next meeting will be held April 7 at 8:30 at the home of Mary Chadbourne with Janet Howell assisting.

GIN CLUB HAS SUPPER AND ANNUAL MEETING SUNDAY

The annual meeting of the Bethel Gin Club was held at the Legion Home Sunday evening. Members and guests were served a supper by the American Legion Auxiliary. The following officers were elected at the business meeting: President, Albert Agnew; Vice-President, Robert Hedges; Secretary and Treasurer, Eugene Van Den Herten; Club Inspector, Herbert Stone; Executive Officer, Herbert Stone.

Entertainment consisted of golf and a show. The show featured "The Great American Songbook" and "The Great American Songbook" presented by Herbert Stone.

KICHTON - DONAHUE

The wedding of Miss Ruth Marie Kichton and William Donahue took place Sunday, Feb. 16, at St. Francis Church, Boston. The Rev. Father Francis Gleason Jr. officiated at the double ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Donahue of Bethel and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Donahue, and Walter Kichton of New York.

The bride wore a ivory tulle gown with a long train and a long veil. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Donahue followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Donahue will live at 225 North St., New York.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

For many years now the "grass roots" opinion has been the most important factor in the making of public policy. It is the opinion of the people, the people's voice, that has shaped the course of our nation's history. It is the opinion of the people that has made the difference between a good government and a bad one.

The "grass roots" opinion is the opinion of the people. It is the opinion of the people that has shaped the course of our nation's history. It is the opinion of the people that has made the difference between a good government and a bad one.

MAINE FARM BUREAU ASSN. URGES FAVORABLE VOTE ON REFERENDUM QUESTION

The Maine Farm Bureau Association urges all voters to vote "Yes" on the referendum question to be voted on March 10.

This tax was passed by the legislature to pay interest and amortize the $2,000,000 bond issue which was approved by the public last September by a two to one vote. The loss of revenue, if this tax is defeated, will certainly result in some curtailment of road construction in 1958 and as one official has put it "the road you kill may be your own."

It should also be noted that this loss, as proposed by this tax, is comparable to three of the other New England States and that the truck taxes in Maine are 12¢ higher than in the nation.

MRS. LONG HONORED AT PERSONAL SHOWER

Mrs. Dolores Long was guest of honor at a personal shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rodney Jordan, West Bethel.

Table decorations were in pink and blue around a three-tiered shower cake, topped with a pink baby carriage and ribbon streamers made by the hostess.

Those attending were Dolores Long, Margaret Sabin, Gail Brown, Hilda Brown, Mrs. Glean, Beth Brown, Janet Brown, Miss Brown, Fred Jordan, Sherman Harn and Audrey Jordan, Dolores Long and Mrs. Long.

Those sending gifts were Margaret King, Ida Forbes, and Bertha Royce.

MAN'S RECIPE

PIE FOR BREAKFAST

A man who takes a dogmatic and unyielding position these days is likely to find himself in an uncomfortable position. In spite of all the contemporary opposition it looks as if automobiles are here to stay. Apparently whatever it is that makes people with a capital P so powerful is and going to be changed by a mass movement, as indicated and implied as the remarks may be. It appears that those sophisticated and sophisticated people, capitalists, are a permanent part of our scene and will force farmers to concentrate on lean meats, grain, vegetables and fruits with the essential vitamins and minerals.

However, a man who has taken an interest in the foods for several decades and who has experienced systematically and logically and believes that the deterioration of the world order began when folks stopped eating pie for breakfast. Perhaps it is a matter of time for the average household should get up half an hour earlier and eat the pie slowly and carefully. The morning situation in the house where children get off the school and the man has to leave on the dot for work, is often an illustration of the word "breakfast."

A re-examination of the custom of eating breakfast would make considerable sense in the nation. If all citizens would eat pie for breakfast, the nation would be a much healthier place. The morning situation in the house where children get off the school and the man has to leave on the dot for work, is often an illustration of the word "breakfast."

COULD SAY IF PEOPLE VOTE TAX INCREASE IS DEFEATED

"Automobile tax increases will be defeated next Monday if the people vote," according to John Gould, sponsor of the petitions which brought about the March 10 referendum.

In a statement to the weekly press of Maine, Gould said, "Most people recognize that more than 50% of the tax increases would fall on the over-taxed family drivers and operators of farm, delivery and other small trucks, while over 14,000 heavy out-of-state trucks travel our highways for five dollars a year."

"It is for this reason," Gould continued, "that the heavy truckers favor the increase and say they are 'fair.'"

Gould warned, however, "that last minute distortions by the opposition—those who seek to place the taxes on the family driver—can be expected to intensify. They continue to threaten or imply a cut in highway construction this year if tax increases are not voted. This is as blatant a falsehood as could be devised, since the increases would have no effect on this year's highway department income."

Gould pointed out "the 1958 Legislature will have Federal and State highway user surveys to guide it, and any attempt to impose increased taxes on the family driver who is paying much more than his fair share, should be vigorously resisted."

The chairman of the Maine Car and Small Truck Owners Association called for a "big turnout of voters who will vote 'No' on March 10 and demand equitable taxation." "Everyone has a stake in this referendum," Gould concluded, "from the family car owner to operators of farm and delivery trucks and all vehicles up to 26,000 pounds, as well as those heavy truck operators who don't believe their out-of-state competition should ride Maine highways practically free."
